Venice, March 14. N. S.

THE Electreſs of Bavaria arrived here the 6th Inſtant from Munich: The Senate ſent one of the Procurators of St. Mark to compliment her; but ſhe deſired to be excuſed, intending to be here incognito. The 10th ſhe went from hence to Padua, to meet the Queen Dowager of Poland her Mother, who is coming hither from Rome; and it is believed, they will continue here ſome time. We have an Account from Breſcia, That the Sieur de Lautrec, a General Officer in the French Service, died lately of the Wounds he received in an Engagement that happened about a Month ago, between a Party which he commanded and another of the German Forces. A Detachment of 2000 Imperialiſts is come into the Valley of Poliſella, and the Grand Prior has poſted part of his Forces on that ſide to obſerve them: He lately ſent a Detachment of 200 Men to ſeize a certain Poſt on the Lake di Garda, in order to hinder the Germans from paſſing by Water between Riva and Torbole; but 300 of the latter, being joined by 100 Peaſants, repulſed the Enemy with Loſs. Letters from Conſtantinople give an Account, That Signior Juſtiniani, who reſides there on the part of this Republick, had Audience of the new Great Viſier, Mahomet Baſhaw, on the 11th of the laſt Month, and was very favourably received; and that the Porte does not ſeem in the leaſt diſpoſed to break the Treaty of Carlowitz, and engage it ſelf into a new War. Since the Depoſing and Baniſhment of the laſt Great Viſier Cailicos, the Aga of the Janizaries, the Stambol Effendi, and ſeveral other Officers who had been promoted by him, have alſo been removed from their Employments. Theſe frequent Changes in their Government and Miniſtry have occaſioned ſuch Diviſions among the Turks, as will probably employ them ſo much at home, that they will be the leſs at leiſure to give any Diſturbance to their Neighbours.

Vienna, March 14. On the 12th Inſtant the King of the Romans went on the other ſide of the Danube to review the Regiment of Dragoons of Tollet, conſiſting of 800 Men, who immediately embarked on the River, and fell down to Presbourg: We ſhortly expect the Regiment of Foot of Salm, and a Regiment of Dragoons lately raiſed in Bavaria by General Feltz, which are likewiſe to march the ſame way. Letters from Presbourg of the 12th give an Account, That General Heiſter having marched along the Waag as far as Newſtatel and Trenſchin, was returning towards the Iſland of Schut. Part of the Gariſon of Presbourg is employed in making a Bridge for him to paſs over the Danube near Pitſdorf. A Party of 2 or 300 Hungarians having lately appeared near Eiſenſtad, one of 200 Dragoons of the Regiment of Bareith gave them Chaſe, and purſued them into a Wood, where Count Caroli lay in Ambuſh with 2000 Malecontents more, who fell upon the Imperialiſts, and purſued them as far as St. Margarita, where a Party from Oedembourg coming to their Aſſiſtance, they repulſed the Malecontents, and retired to that Gariſon.

Dreſden, March 17. The King of Poland's Departure for Cracow begins to be diſcourſed of at Court, tho' without any certainty as to the time. There are frequent Conſultations held between his Miniſters upon the preſent Juncture of Affairs; and more particularly the putting of this Electorate into a Poſture of Defence, if the Swedes ſhould attack it; which Fear however begins to be pretty well over. They write from Poland, That the Staroſt Spielski, who had offered to ſubmit to the King, upon promiſe of a Pardon, has again changed ſides, and is gone over to the Swedes, with 600 of his Followers.

Berlin, March 21. Great Preparations are making here for the melancholly Ceremony of the Reception of the late Queen's Body, which is expected to morrow night; the Mauſoleum wherein it is to be depoſited is ready, and makes a very magnificent Shew, being full of fine Statues, and illuminated with near 2000 Candles. The King returned hither the 19th from Schonhauſen. The Gentleman whom the Marquis de Prie, Ambaſſador from Savoy, has diſpatched to Turin, left this Place the 17th, and the next day paſſed thro' Deſſau, and complimented the Prince of Anhalt in his Excellency's Name. The Prince has returned the Compliment by his Secretary, who has aſſured the Marquis, That his Maſter will uſe all poſſible Diligence in the March of the Pruſſian Troops towards Italy; That he deſigns to go Poſt from Anhalt the 23d, in order to put himſelf at the head of thoſe Troops, and hopes to be in 4 days on the Frontiers of Tirol. We are told for certain, That thoſe Forces began their March the 20th Inſtant, if not ſooner; and it is ſaid, That General Stille, who commands them in the Abſence of the Prince of Anhalt, has incurred the Diſpleaſure of this Court, for having deferred their March longer than the 15th, contrary to the poſitive Orders which had been ſent him from hence. Letters from Dreſden ſay, That the King of Poland is ſtill there, and has not yet fixed the time of his Departure for Cracow. The Saxon Forces which were near that City have made a Motion, as if they were to march towards Lithuania to join the Muſcovites.

Hague, March 27. N. S. The States General having found it inconvenient to delay any longer the Nomination of the General Officers who are to command their Forces the next Campaign, came the 25th Inſtant to a final Reſolution in that Point. They have appointed Monſieur d'Auverquerque to have the chief Command of their Army near the Maeſe, and the Generals Slangenbourg, Saliſch and Tilly, to ſerve under him. The Count de Noyelles and General Dopff are to command on the Moſelle. A Conſpiracy has been diſcovered at Huiſt for the betraying of that Place to the French; and Three of the Perſons who were concerned in it are ſeized. This day we received Advice, That the Duke of Vendoſme having made Preparations for attacking the Camp at Creſcentino, the Duke of Savoy, not being able to defend it, retired towards Chivas. The Advices from France ſay, That Monſieur Pointi, with the French Squadron under his Command, was ſtill before Gibraltar, but give no Account of any Progreſs they have made in that Siege.

Kinſale, March 6. A Squadron of Her Majeſty's Ships commanded by Sir George Byng, Vice-Admiral of the Blue, came in here this day, and brought with them as Prizes 3 French Merchant Ships homeward bound from the Weſt-Indies; viz. the Elephant of Rochell, of 400 Tuns and 18 Guns, laden with Sugar, taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Medway; the Glutton of Rochfort, of 200 Tuns and 8 Guns, laden alſo with Sugar, taken by the Deptford; and the John and James, of 100 Tuns, laden with Sugar and Ginger, taken by the Rocheſter. Her Majeſty's Ship the Exeter, one of the ſaid Squadron, alſo took a French Man of War that was their Convoy, named the Thetis of Rochfort, of 44 Guns and 244 Men, after an obſtinate Fight of 6 Hours, wherein the Enemy had 33 Men killed and wounded; and 14 Men were killed and 31 wounded on board the Exeter. This Man of War ſailed from France the 4th of Auguſt laſt to to the Charibbee Iſlands and St. Domingo, and was commanded by the Chevalier de Saujon, a Knight of the Order of St. Louis: She was richly laden with Sugar, Indigo and Cocoa, beſides above the Value of 2000 l. in Money and Plate. This Ship being very much diſabled in the Fight, and very leaky, the Wind contrary, and the Weather tempeſtuous, the Admiral and Captains judged that She would ſink before they ſhould be able to gain any Port, and therefore they took out of her what was moſt Valuable, and could well be ſaved, and then burnt her. The Priſoners taken on board theſe Prizes are all brought on Shore here, to the Number of 450 Men, among whom are, the Captain of the Theris, his Two Lieutenants, the Count de Geres, late Governor of St. Chriſtophers, the Lieutenant de Roy of the Iſland of St. Martin, 5 Guards de Marine, and ſeveral other Officers.

Falmouth, March 17. On the 14th Inſtant the Roſe-Tree and Duke of Marlborough, two Dutch Privateers, brought in here as Prize a French Ship of 12 Guns, laden with Wine and Salt for Newfoundland. The next day came in another Dutch Privateer, called The Houſe of Naſſau, with a French Prize of 16 Guns, bound alſo for the ſame Place. The ſame day came in the Prince Packet-Boat from Lisbon. The Queen Packet-Boat ſailed hence laſt night for Lisbon.

Dartmouth, March 16. On the 11th Inſtant the Greyhound Sloop of Guernſey brought into Salcomb two ſmall Prizes, one laden with Wine, and the other with Tobacco. This day came in the Eleanor and Mary from Guernſey; the Maſter reports, That the Privateers of that Iſland have lately brought in there 9 or 10 Prizes laden with Wine and Brandy.

By the Principal Commiſſioners for Prizes.
